“My name is Matt Lockhart. I am the owner of Good Vibes, an 1,100 person capacity concert hall in Newport News, VA where Patrick is consistently booked. He brings the house down with his band, as a solo act & with others. He’s professional, on time and very talented. Patrick and his band is a safe bet to put on any stage.”

“Patrick Ryan Band performs on the STUFT stage every Tuesday night to a packed house. He and his band are some of the most talented players in our area & I’ve known most of them for years.”

“Patrick works with a lot of people at once as host of “Open Jam Tuesday” at STUFT. Musicians, the audience, his bandmates, etc. and I’ve always been impressed by how well he manages to make sure everyone has a good time. Patrick has played at my bar since 2019 and we couldn’t be happier to have them as often as we do.”

“We’ve been booking Patrick Ryan since 2012 at Schooners Grill in Newport News. He and his band were the first people we called when COVID restrictions began to lift and we brought live music back. They’re unique in that he doesn’t fall into the typical “bar band” bucket; Patrick is gifted at reading his audience and appealing to the crowd. I highly recommend his band to any venue looking for talented & professionally executed live music.”
